

An Educational Seminar for Local 1 & Local 63 Employers

GETTING PAID:

How the Law Can Help You Get What You Deserve

Wednesday • July 23, 2008

William Tell Restaurant/Holiday Inn

6201 Joliet Rd., Countryside, IL

7: 00 am Registration & Hot Buffet Breakfast • 7:30-9:30 am Program

This seminar will focus on legal rights available to steel erectors to assist them in getting paid for services performed. We will discuss various statutes and laws, and focus on practical steps that erectors and fabricators can undertake to put them in the best position to get paid. The discussion will center on:

- Timely assertion of Mechanic’s Lien Rights and Payment Bond Claims
- Avoidance of dangerous language in Lien Waivers
- Timing requirements of the Illinois Prompt Payment Act
- Identification of favorable & unfavorable payment provisions in contracts
- What to do when the party you contracted with ends up in bankruptcy

SPEAKER: Ryan Hiss is a construction lawyer and a partner in Lyman & Nielsen, LLC. He has represented a wide range of contractors, suppliers, architects, engineers, owners and developers in various dispute forums, including state and federal court and before mediators and arbitrators. His experience includes numerous cases involving contract disputes, delay claims, construction defects, payment disputes and design malpractice.
